

150,000 EXTRA VOTE OFFER ENDS TUESDAY

Real Race for $1114 in Prizes Now On
With List of Competitors Narrowed Down 39 Names---
To Be Fast Stepping
From Now On.

Mrs. Levi Flemming of Chippewa Lake romps in a winner this week. She grabs off the $5 offered the contestants turning in the great amount of cash subscription business for the week ending September 6th, noon.

For the period ending September 6th results were decidedly bad for all hands concerned. This contest needs a dose of "pep"—or "ginger"—or some sort of stimulant.

As a result of the lagging efforts a person could enter RIGHT TODAY and by diligent efforts win out over those that have been in the race from the very beginning.

And another thing, some of the candidates seem to be overconfident. Overconfidence has lost more races, caused the "other fellow" that plods right along, to win that which we thought we "had cinched."

Occasionally a contestant says "I have seen everybody right around my home section." Well, the whole county, state, and nation is yours to work in. But really, the county has not been "scratched" yet, and when one works over the section around one's home, then branch out a little farther and take in other portions of the county in your canvass. Medina, Medina Rural Routes, Lodi and Routes, Leroy, Spencer and Routes, Mallet Creek and Routes, Brunswick and Valley City and Routes could stand a case-to-house canvass with good results.

Now the contestants really secure REAL RESULTS in the way of subscriptions during the period ending September 13th will pile up a tremendous vote, for 150,000 EXTRA VOTES are given with each $22.50 turned in. By making the MOST of this big vote offer a REAL WORKER is going to progress far on the road towards winning the $694 Chevrolet Touring Car or other big prize.

The list of contestants has been radically pruned. A lot more alleged workers are scheduled to go soon unless they WAKE UP. This is a race for WORKERS. The prizes offered are so valuable that any person who does not wish to give SOME TIME and more than a prefatory effort to the contest is wasting his or her own time, and ours, too.

"There is no royal road to knowledge" wrote an ancient Greek philosopher. He had been trying to teach some little, loafing, future Grecian king his lesson that morning.

It takes WORK to accumulate wisdom.

And it takes WORK to win a prize in The Medina Sentinel's auto contest.

One of the biggest troubles the Contest Manager has is to make folks understand that "sitting" at home thinking about it will not bring a prize. To secure subscriptions one must get out and meet people—must ask them to subscribe to The Medina Sentinel, or if they are already subscribers get them to pay up any indebtedness and to renew for a year or so in advance.

One lady came to The Medina Sentinel office Tuesday and turned in ten one-year subscriptions.

During the conversation which followed she said: "You know I WAS ONLY OUT ONE AFTERNOON ABOUT TWO HOURS AND GOT THESE TEN NEW SUBSCRIPTIONS. IT'S EASY."

Now that lady won't win the Chevrolet auto unless she "wakes up."

She has all kinds of time—not a great deal of housework to attend to—no children to clutter up the front yard and bother her, and the use of a car to get about over the country, and she has that knack about her which makes getting subscriptions EASY.

We know other ladies who are busy 8 to 10 hours a day in an office—and others are busy housewives. And any one of these will likely poll a bigger vote than she who works two hours a week. For these others USE EVERY SPARE MINUTE—and they find a lot of MINUTES when they try. Knowing the value of your time and how to use it is what COUNTS in this life.

We all have exactly the same number of MINUTES in each HOUR—the same number of HOURS in each DAY and each WEEK we live. The WAY we USE these minutes, hours or weeks is the difference between success or failure in life. He or she who gets the most returns out of each hour of life lives the most. Money, health, learning isn't our capital in life—it is our minutes—hours, days, and we all waste this capital more recklessly than anything we possess. For when our allotted span is done—we head the procession to the cemetery, but we don't know it, for our life is done.

Today we have—"tomorrow"—

TWO MEN FINED RESULT OF BONFIRE

One Hits Other For Alleged Meddling.

The singular propensity oftentimes evinced for constructing a huge elevation from the diminutive mole-hill was once more manifested in Medina last Friday, the mole-hill and mountain in this case being respectively a bonfire and two law suits, the hill-builders being M. J. Bensinger and C. A. Waite, East Washington street neighbors.

Last Thursday night Bensinger started a bon-fire. When the fire was well under way, Waite appeared with a bucket of water and put it out, whereupon Bensinger picked up a stick and threw it at Waite, striking the latter in the back.

From now on the hillock rises rapidly. Waite has Bensinger arrested for assault and battery, the latter retaliating by having Waite arrested for trespass.

Friday morning before Justice of Peace Ainsworth Bensinger registered a plea of guilty and was assessed a fine of $1 and costs, amounting in all to a little more than $7. Later in the day Waite reluctantly entered a similar plea and paid a fine corresponding to that of Bensinger's.

MEMBERS ENTERTAINED AND THEN GET IOLTED

Local Kiwanians listened to a brief address last Thursday by State Director of Education Vernon M. Riegel, also witnessed a demonstration by Miss Ann Sharp of New York city, in which she showed by the aid of a phonograph and other musical instruments, and six little girls from the Medina schools, how the sentiment of music and its rhythm may be readily taught to children.

President Root of the club caused general consternation among the members when, following the announcement that the season for straw hats was past, he appointed Albert Whitney and Tom Ferriman a committee to gather all straw hats worn by members that day, bring them into the room and there deliberately stamp them to shreds. The order was promptly complied with, but the hats proved to be an odd lot supplied for the occasion. For a few moments great beads of sweat appeared on many foreheads.

SQUIRREL SEASON OPENS SEPT. 15

The open season for hunting squirrels is near at hand and game wardens are sending out warnings that violators of the law will be prosecuted vigorously. The season runs from Sept. 15th to Oct. 20th, both days inclusive.

Game wardens are warning hunters that only five squirrels may be killed by a hunter in any one day and that for the sale or purchase of squirrels is a fine of $25 to $200.

The duck season opens on Sept. 16th and runs to Dec. 31st, both days inclusive. Ducks may be hunted on any day of the week in this period except Sunday from one half hour before sunrise to sunset. Not more than 25 ducks may be shot in a day.

GAS AND FUEL CO. CRIPPLES CITIES

Lima and neighboring cities have had full measure of trouble the past week by reason of the Medina Gas & Fuel Co. preposterously shutting off the supply of gas for those cities. The Medina company's action followed refusal of Lima to pay 45 cents per 1000 feet for the product. Fifteen thousand or more consumers in Lima alone are affected. The State Utilities Commission promptly ordered the Medina company to resume its service, but the latter has refused to do so and says it will contest the question in the courts first.

MILK CAMPAIGN SOON

It will be of interest to the Medina county milk producers to know that the Dairy Department of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation, the Agricultural College Extension Service of the Ohio State University, and the National Dairy Council are working together in arranging for a campaign for the increased consumption of milk in Ohio.

Such a campaign will start Sept. 1 in Cleveland. This campaign will require three months time and it is hoped that much good will result of it, not only in better health to the city folk, but that some of the surplus will be used. Milk and its products as ideal foods will be emphasized and the increased use of them encouraged.

TEACHERS NAME CONKLE AS HEAD

Superintendent of the Medina Schools in Charge of Institute

ANNUAL MEETING A SUCCESSFUL ONE

Movement Endorsed to Broaden and Adopt Curriculum to Individual Needs

A very successful teachers institute was held last week at the Congregational church. Teachers from all sections of the county were in attendance.

Several of the older teachers pronounced the last weeks meeting one of the most interesting institutes held in many years. The instructors complimented the teachers of Medina county on the friendly and cooperative spirit that seemed to permeate all sessions.

Hon. Vernon M. Riegel, state director of education, Columbus, Ida O. Rudy, Supervisor of Western State Normal College, Kalamazoo, Michigan, and Nelle Sharpe of New York city were the principal instructors.

An interesting musical program was given by Samuel T. Burns, Medina county supervisor of music, assisted by John Beck of Medina schools and Vandaora McKee of Medina county schools. President F. D. Riffey presided at all sessions. Hazel Clark and Helen Tubbs were the secretaries.

At the close of the Friday session reports were received from the nominating committee composed of E. N. Drake, Ella Canavan and Paul J. Warner. In accordance with the committee's suggestion the following officers were elected for the coming year:

W. E. Conkle, pres.; O. K. Lehman, vice pres.; Helen Tubbs, sec.

This was followed by the report of the resolutions committee composed of D. R. Virtue, Ruth Wright and Frances Thompson. The following resolutions were adopted:

The teachers of Medina county assembled in annual institute wish:

1. To express to the instructors, Vernon M. Riegel, state director of education and Miss Ida O. Rudy, of Western State Normal College, Michigan, appreciation of the instruction and inspiration received during the week, and to express similar appreciation to the part-time instructors, Mrs. Nellie I. Sharpe, Mrs. Carrie Flatter, and Mrs. Edith McClure Patterson for their helpful work.

2. To welcome to Medina county Mr. Samuel T. Burns, Miss Vandaora McKee and Mr. John Beck as supervisors of music, and to express appreciation for their work at the institute.

3. To pledge cooperation to these instructors of music and to urge the people of the county to observe their work with an open and receptive mind.

4. To endorse the movement to broaden the school curriculum and to adapt it to the needs of the individual pupil.

5. To approve of the parent-teachers association movement and resolve to do everything possible toward such an association in each Medina county community.

6. To express hearty approval of the strengthening of the county system of education as effected by the last legislature.

7. To express appreciation for the reflection of County Superintendent C. B. Ulery, Assistant Supt. S. H. Babcock and Village Supt. W. E. Conkle and to pledge to them continued support.

8. To welcome Miss Florence McCracken as director of the County Normal school and to assist in making her work a success.

9. To express recognition of the fact that the future success of the public school depends upon the selection and training of teachers and to urge that high school seniors avail themselves of the opportunity for professional instruction afforded by the Medina County Normal school.

—James W. Smith and Elizabeth Coran of Medina were united in marriage Tuesday evening by Rev. W. R. Moffet at the Church of Christ parsonage.

HINKLEY FESTIVAL ONE BIG SUCCESS

Nearly 3,000 Attended Annual Event.

The number of people that attended the Labor Day festival, and homecoming at Hinkley Center Monday has been variously estimated at from 2,500 to 3,000, either of which figures is probably not far from the correct one. Brongers park, the large and beautiful preserve donated to Hinkley by its beloved and renowned citizen, John Brongers, was fairly swarming with people throughout the day and evening, nearly every township in the county being represented, while many were there from Cleveland, Lorain, Elyria and other nearby cities.

The extensive program of entertainment previously advertised by the committee in charge was carried out to the letter and was so carefully arranged that there were no lapses, but something doing all the time. And while there was always something to suit somebody, there was one thing that exactly suited everybody, and that was the barbecue, which provided toothsome fillers for sandwiches for all comers.

Ball games and other sports were pulled off at stated intervals during the day and were witnessed by large numbers. The Medina band was present and the excellent work of this organization was the subject of frequent favorable comment. A martial band added zest to the occasion, while a decided feature of the afternoon was the singing and playing of a colored quintet from Cleveland, whose numbers were repeatedly encored.

The speaker of the day was Senator J. F. Burke of Elyria, whose subject was "The Ideal American." It was a most excellent address and well and forcefully delivered. Senator Burke was presented by Hon. A. R. Webber of Elyria, a native of Hinkley, and who is always "on deck" when the township of his birth plans to do anything.

Willard Garver of Medina held the winning number on the Ford automobile the drawing of which took place about 5:30 o'clock.

MCNEAL-GARVER

A quiet wedding ceremony was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant McNeal, 239 East Washington street, when their daughter, Miss Yvonne A. McNeal, became the bride of Mr. Marion E. Garver, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Garver of 560 South Court street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. Irwin, pastor of the First Baptist church, in the presence of only the immediate families of the bride and groom. Following their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Garver left for a week's honeymoon trip, after which they will reside in apartments in the home of the groom's parents.

Both the bride and groom are among Medina's popular and respected young people, and have many friends whose best wishes go with them.

GARFIELD'S SON TALKS TO VETS OF 42d O. V. I.

The few surviving members of General Garfield's old Civil War regiment, the 42d O. V. I., held their annual reunion at Chippewa Lake on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week, and were given a happy surprise when President J. R. Swartz of Ashland introduced James R. Garfield, son of the commander and martyred president of the United States. Mr. Garfield related many personal experiences in Mexico, where he has spent much time. D. O. Cotton of Dayton and others gave brief addresses. The next meeting will be held the last Wednesday in August, 1922.

CHANGE AT CREAMERY

The Bell-Parton-Eckert Co. has disposed of its creamery business on West Liberty street to Claude M. Hatch and J. C. Indoe. For the past year or more Mr. Hatch has been located in Akron in the real estate business, while Mr. Indoe has been residing in the south part of the county since selling his farm in Granger. Both men will move to Medina.

BANKERS AT MEET

The regular quarterly session of the bankers of this district, composed of the counties of Medina, Lorain, Gauga, Cuyahoga, Summit, Lake, Portage, Ashtabula, Mahoning, and Trumbull, will be held at Community Inn, Chippewa Lake, next Wednesday, Sept. 14. Music will be provided by a ten-piece orchestra under the direction of John Beck.

COUNTY FACES TWO MORE SUITS

Wadsworth Couple Ask Award of $6,500 for Damages

DRIVE CAR OVER 8-FT. PRECIPICE

Charge Commissioners With Neglect in Not Providing Proper Safeguards at Bridge

Two suits for damages aggregating $6,500 were filed against the Medina County Commissioners last Friday, respectively by Mrs. Anne Durling and her husband, Arthur G. Durling, of Wadsworth. The former sues for $5,000, the latter for $1,500.

The suits are the result of an accident which befell the Durlings on the night of July 13 last, when a motorcycle in which they were riding ran over a precipice on the east and west public highway in Guilford township, at a point about three-fourths of a mile south of the north line of the township throwing both occupants into a creek, a distance of about eight feet, it is claimed.

According to her petition Mrs. Durling's injuries consisted of a misplacement of the right clavicle when she struck on her right side and face; severe bruises to her right side from head to foot, and internal injuries, from all of which she "has suffered great pain and anguish."

Durling's injuries are said to have consisted of a cut above the left eye and on the left side and right leg, and the destruction of his clothes and shoes.

The petitions of both Durlings aver there was no bridge over the creek where the accident occurred; that the highway was not closed to traffic, and that no lanterns or other signals had been placed there to give warning of danger. It is also stated that about two weeks previous to the accident the Commissioners had erected a bridge over the creek at the point named, but that subsequently the frame and travelled part of the bridge had been removed. Plaintiffs claim they were traveling at a moderate rate of speed.

On August 8 plaintiffs state they presented their claims to the County Commissioners, and the latter refused to recognize them.

F. W. Woods and H. J. Sadler have been retained as counsel by plaintiffs.

GRANGER LEADS IN ACCREDITED HERDS

It will be of interest to know that Granger township at the present time has 17 herds either on the accredited list or in the process of accreditation. Next in line comes Wadsworth with 9 herds so listed. Following is Brunswick with 8 herds.

The result of this past week's testing is as follows:

E. J. Haight, 14 head, no reactors; Dr. G. J. Damon, 6 head, no reactors; G. W. Welton, 16 head, no reactors; Fred W. Hostetter, 12 head, 3 reactors; W. G. Hatch, 16 head, no reactors; C. T. Goodwin, 13 head, 1 reactor.

The following men have disposed of their reactors and have disinfected their barns:

Home for Aged Women, Lodi; Long Range Farm, Wadsworth; F. D. Koons, Montville; Carl Abbott, Montville; Dan Bowes, Sharon; E. M. Ganyard and Son, Granger; J. O. Beachler, Granger.

Already there are nearly enough herds for another week's testing. It is not known just when Dr. Gilten will be back in the county, but if one is planning on having their herd tested, it will be advisable to get your application in to the Farm Bureau office as soon as possible.

IMPORTANT MEETING

On next Saturday, Sept. 10, the Holstein breeders of Medina county will hold an important meeting at the Farm Bureau offices at 8 p. m. Matters of vital interest to each Holstein man will be discussed and it is hoped that a large number will attend.

—The marriage of Miss Florence Leach to Mr. John G. Lincoln of Cleveland will take place Saturday at the bride's home, 222 North Broadway.
